

Madrid, 29 of April 2011

PRESS RELEASE MEDIASET ESPAÑA

The disciplinary proceedings that have been launched by the Antitrust Authority (Comisión Nacional de la Competencia) are not based on the material breach of commitments accepted by Telecinco in the context of the acquisition of Cuatro, but on the alleged breach of a strict and formal duty, namely the time limit related to one of the required documents.

Mediaset Spain is confident that, after an investigation, the case will be filed without further proceedings.

GABINETE DE PRENSA

MEDIASET españa.

