TELECINCO AND DORNA REACH AN AGREEMENT TO BROADCAST MOTOGP WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP FROM 2012

Gestevisión Telecinco and Dorna Sports have reached an agreement to broadcast the MotoGP World Championship from 2012. With this new agreement, Dorna adds Telecinco (leader channel of private TV in Spain) to their list of operators.

Paolo Vasile, Managing Director of Telecinco, “it has always been a major objective for us to add to our content the MotoGP World Championship, a sport that has brought many victories to Spain. At Telecinco we are ready to start working with Dorna, even before 2012, if possible”.

On the other hand, Carmelo Ezpeleta, Managing Director of Dorna, says “reaching an agreement with Telecinco proves the importance and the impact of MotoGP, a sport with maximum audience shown on TV. Telecinco is recognized by its great work in sport broadcastings and we are sure that this agreement will be a step forward for MotoGP”.
