

NAOMI WATTS, nominated at the Golden Globes for best dramatic actress
for THE IMPOSSIBLE

December 13th, 2012. - Naomi Watts, star of the impossible, has been nominated for Best Actress in the drama category at the Golden Globes, considered as the prelude to the Oscars.

This nomination, in addition to that obtained yesterday by the actress in the Screen Actors Guild Awards and Critics Choice Awards, in which the work of young-Tom Holland has also been awarded puts Naomi Watts and the movie in the race towards the prestigious honors of the Academy Awards.

After meeting his nomination, Naomi Watts said: "I am thrilled with this recognition, it means a lot to me. It has been an honor to play Mary Belon. Words cannot describe how touched I was by her story and that of so many others. From now I will always feel attached to her and the whole movie team. "

Also, the director of the film J.A. Bayonne has shown his enthusiasm at the actress's nomination: "Naomi's nomination makes us very happy. Her interpretation reflects the extreme sensitivity and depth of feeling of many of the women who lived close to the tsunami tragedy in 2004."

THE IMPOSSIBLE and its director, J. A. Bayonne, were also nominated for a Detroit Film Critics Award.

The ceremony for the Golden Globes, organized by the Association of the Hollywood Foreign Press (HPA), will be held on January 13th in Los Angeles.

THE IMPOSSIBLE, produced by Telecinco Cinema and Apaches Entertainment, will be released in the U.S. on 21st December through Summit Entertainment.
